LEARN IDIOMS
At arm's length

If something is at ..., it is a safe distance away from you.
Child's play

If something is ..., it is very easy and simple.
Cold feet

If you get ... about something, you lose the courage to do it.
Dead to the world

If somebody is 's fast asleep and completely unaware of what if happening around them, he or she's ....
Eye candy

When a person is very attractive, they can be described as ... - sweet to look at!
Get your ducks in a row

If you ..., you organise yourself and your life.
Hat trick

Three successes one after the other is ....
In a fog

If you're ..., you are confused, dazed or unaware.
Fly on the wall

If you are able to see and hear events as they happen, you are a ...
Knock on wood

This idiom is used to wish for good luck.
As good as new

If something has been used but is still in extremely good condition, it is as ....
If things happen ..., they are directly one after another.
If someone is chewing ..., he or she is thinking about something intently.
Doggy bag

If you ask for a ... in a restaurant, they will pack the food you haven't eaten for you to take home.
Eagle eyes

Someone who has ... sees everything; no detail is too small.
Feel free

If you ask for permission to do something and are told to ..., the other person means that there is absolutely no problem.
Go fly a kite

This is used to tell someone to go away and leave you alone.
Head on a spike

If someone wants a ..., they want to be able to destroy or really punish a person.
I've got a bone to pick with you

If somebody says this, they mean that they have some complaint to make against the person they are addressing.
Jam on your face

If you say that someone has ..., they appear to be caught, embarrassed or found guilty.
THE END